*Definitions on next page

Direct Individual & Family Plans: These are health insurance plans that are purchased directly from insurance companies.

Exchange Individual & Family Plans: These are health insurance plans purchased on the federal health insurance exchange (www.HealthCare.gov). Depending on your household size and gross annual income, you may be eligible for premium assistance.

Large Employer Plans: These are group health insurance plans designed specifically for large groups of 50+ employees.

Small Employer Plans: These are group health insurance plans that can help small groups of typically 1-50 employees.

Short Term Health Insurance Plans: These are plans that are specifically designed for a short term, typically three years or less. Usually less expensive than “qualified health plans,” with more limited benefits.

Dental Insurance: We have both individual and group dental insurance plans available.

Vision Insurance: We have both individual and group vision plans available.
